Who Dat Showed up in July?

July 3rd, the day before the holiday, summer vacations; if you do the math you would expect the turnout to be pretty thin for our July gathering. I was hoping for maybe ten people, tops, to show up. Boy was I ever wrong! By the time I got there about the only seat left was next to Nancy McKenzie, and everybody knows she's got girl cooties. 22 people, a fantastic summer turnout.

Pleased as punch to see Remy Abeyta! (pic left) It's been a few years! Also a warm welcome to Scott Mattson (pictured below) who joined us for the first time and played a couple tunes; while that sounds easy enough, it is not. Well played, sir. Do come back. It was also good to see Mike and Russ Clark up from Ft. Collins. Mike has worked hard the last couple years learning the guitar, and really has an admirable skill set.

Jeanie White has surrounded herself with men, willing to do her bidding. Rick Memmel brought an electric bass this time, while Bob Fontaine added some harmonies to one of her tunes. Nancy M. and Gary Krause also teamed up for some sweet tunes on their tiny instruments (uke and mandolin)

Group effort was Sam Cooke's "Chain Gang". We did not do justice to Sam's wonderful phrasing, but we were pretty good with the grunting and groaning. OOOO, AHHH...
