I got dat June bug

We had a real strong turn-out for our June get-together. Nice to see Ty Warner, it's been awhile! Bill Bailey brought his steel pedal and played along with almost everybody (pictured left), along with knocking out a few tunes of his own. Gary Krause and Nancy McKenzie teamed up for a couple of tunes on their ukelele and mandolin, and Rick Memmel brought an acoustic bass to play along with Jeanie White on a couple tunes. (picture below) Our group effort was Robbie Robinson's (The Band) 'Cripple Creek', and it was not too shabby from where I was sitting.

Edith Cook brought up a very good point I would like to repeat here. So far, there have been very few people sign up for the library's music contest scheduled for August. Edith said, and rightfully so, it's not about winning the contest! It is about supporting our library. Let's face it, few among of have the skill set to win, but they need players to make it interesting and make it a success. We have teamed up with the library many times over the years to everyone's benefit. They need our help on this one, so go sign up, support our library.

Rick (one of the characters in this here photo) has loads of cool stuff. Electric, acoustic, guitars, basses, amps, pedals, you name it... Call him at 635-7694 if you need any music related gear.
